

How far should I be reaching?

Things you think you will use often throughout your work day should be easier to reach

- The normal working area is roughly within 15", though this will vary between individuals due to different arm lengths
- Lesser used items can be placed outside the 15" but within 27"
- Anything outside of your maximum arm reach are items rarely used

